I NEVER saw
a discontented tree.
they grip the ground
as though they like it,
and though fast rooted they travel about as far as we do.

ENGAGEMENT PROCESS

Introducing

New Communications Assistant

Cameron Parsons joined our Communications and Public Relations Department this week. His responsibilities include posting information on social media, updating the website, ordering office supplies and staffing the mailroom at Carondelet Center. A native of Adelaide (Australia), Cameron holds a B.S. in Media and when he is not at work, he likes playing golf, surfing and playing as a Forward Pocket in Australian football. If you want to know more about this sport, please check this video. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OqymJpIhpPY> If you are still confused, he may be contacted at 310.889.2131 or Cameron@csjla.org ❖

Archives in St. Louis

Archives Consolidation

Work is underway to consolidate much of the North American archives of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet in one location. The archives at this time will include collections from St. Louis, Albany, Los Angeles and Hawaii. The first step was to move the materials to St. Louis. The decision to move toward consolidation, a process that began with the Province Archives Directors, included working with a professional consultant and the careful consideration of the congregational leadership. "Carondelet at St. Louis is a logical place to house this treasure because it is the site where our first Sisters settled," said Sister Danielle Bonetti, CSJ.

The archives are a treasure trove of history including letters dating back to our founders, files on the life and ministries of individual Sisters and much more. Consolidating and digitizing some of the holdings will enable us to make these priceless resource materials more available to Sisters, ACOF, Partners in Mission and Ministry and interested researchers across the whole congregation. ❖

CSJs at St. John of God

Sister Carmel Therese Gutierrez, CSJ joined Sisters Catherine Marie Kreta, Maria Elena Lopez and Anna Mary Meyer, CSJs at St. John of God/Benedict Menne Memory Care Community in Los Angeles. A group of staff members took the opportunity to visit and have lunch with the Sisters. ❖

Beyond the Veil: Life After Death

Join us for a fascinating exploration of life after death, how different faiths understand what lies beyond life in this world and how their beliefs about death and dying are reflected in the many rituals that surround death. The day will include both a morning and afternoon session with separate panels for each.

You are welcome to attend either session or both, with a break for lunch in between. ❖
