Angel Boutique Begins Tomorrow!

ur Annual Christmas Boutique is this weekend! We invite you to join us this Saturday and Sunday at Carondelet Center from 10:00a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Find beautiful, boutique quality gifts for you and your family at affordable prices! There will be numerous handmade items including knitted works, Christmas trees, baked goods and jams! We also have large kitchen, movie, garden, angels and Italian themed gift baskets for the silent auction. Proceedings benefit The Dear Neighbor Fund which helps people in need. ❖

In the end, there is only universal love where

“God will be God in all.”

~ 1 Corinthians 15:28

LMU Christmas Concert

You are cordially invited to LMU's Gala Christmas Concerts with two performances: Thursday, Dec. 7th and Saturday, Dec. 9th. Those of you who have attended before know it to be a glorious treat. Both concerts begin at 8:00 p.m. in Sacred Heart Chapel on the LMU campus. Tickets are available at the door for $15 and $20. Sister Sean Patrice Smythe, CSJ sings with one of the choruses and hopes to see you there. ❖

Awards Night Spirit of Giving Celebration

Catholic Charities of Los Angeles hosted the Spirit of Giving Celebration last Saturday at the Riviera Country Club in Pacific Palisades, CA benefiting homeless and low-income people in the Our Lady of the Angels region. Sister Judy Vaughan, CSJ was honored with the 2017 Sister Peg Dolan Memorial Spirit of Giving Award for her work at Alexandria House, a transitional home for homeless women and children in Los Angeles. Philanthropist and supporter Allan Markin received the Humanitarian Award for his contributions to reducing homelessness in Calgary, Canada. In her acceptance speech, Sister Judy moved us to ponder—Do we want to be liberal or radical? Her Sisters, Chris and Kieran were so humbly proud as well as the rest of our Community. JPIC Federation Group Photo Nov. 3, 2017 in Los Angeles, CA

From across the country twenty five JPIC representatives from the various congregations belonging to the Federation of the Sisters of St. Joseph gathered in LA for their annual meeting. Our understanding of racism and white privilege was unpacked and deepened. Our presenter, Janet Dahlem also spent time helping us understand the importance of self-care as people of justice. We had the opportunity to gather with students from Mount St. Mary's University to view the documentary film '13th' produced by Ava Devernay; this was followed by discussion. Ava Devernay is a graduate of St. Joseph's High School in Lakewood.

There was a great camaraderie among us with an afternoon off to visit the Getty Museum and the boardwalk in Santa Monica. This energetic group left with a positive spirit, committed to continuing the mission of Jesus in serving the dear neighbor during these troubled times. ❖

Please remember our friends and relatives who have recently died:

- 11/3 Bill McAuliffe, husband of Frances Caruso McAuliffe, former member
- Mother of Gigi Parker, CSJA
