

Sister Madeline Marie Nakatsu, CSJ

May 4, 1933 ~ May 24, 2022

Sister Madeline Marie, known as Miki to her family was born in Kyoto, Japan and entered the CSJ Novitiate in Fall of 1961. She was educated at Notre Dame college, Kyoto and received her master's degree from Sophia University, Tokyo. Madeline's early years in ministry were spent in teaching Junior High and High School English at St. Joseph Joshi Gakuen in Tsu, Japan. In addition to being a natural leader, Madeline was a woman of strong faith, integrity and commitment to education.

She shared her gifts generously as Principal of St. Joseph Joshi Gakuen for many years and as the CSJ Vice Provincial in Japan.

Now, reunited with family and friends, may she rest in God's loving peace.
